Gadabout wives can never keep secrets entirely to themselves Their husbands on coming home are pretty generally sure to find them out

At a meeting of the merchants of Raleigh to-night, at the store of R. H. Weathers, the question of the "coffee bonanza" treated in our editorial columns this morning will be considered.

The Oxford Torchlight says that Farmville, Va., is moving for a Railroad to Keysville and thence by Clarksville through Granville county to Raleigh, or some eligible point on the N. C. Railroad.

The Governor has been petitioned for a special term of the Davidson county Superior Court, to commence the last Monday in December or the first Monday in January, for the trial of civil actions.

The lovers of good music will visit Tucker Hall to-night. The Holman English Opera Company is said to be superb, and what is best, only the plain old Anglo Saxon tongue is used. The latter feature we particularly admire.

W. A. Gattis, at his feed store in the Adams & Moore building, is continuously receiving feed of every kind of the best quality, which he is selling cheap. He keeps on hand the best brands of meal. Try him.

A WORD TO PATRONS.—Subscribers who do not want their papers stopped, should examine the date of their subscription, which is printed on the label with the address. By remitting the amount of the next term's subscription a few days before the date indicated (that is if the paper is desired to be continued) they will save considerable trouble to both themselves and us.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the following advertisements which appear for the first time this morning:

Some good land, lying on the east side of Neuse river, is advertised for sale by D. Hinton.

Messrs. Law & Co. are selling their crockery at extremely low figures, desiring to obtain a new stock. There is no crockery establishment that can surpass this house in its elegant display of goods.

Thirty valuable lots are to be sold in the town of Sanford on Saturday, the 4th of December. For further information, apply to Jno. D. McIver at Sanford.

The stalls, stands, &c., in the market house, will be rented at public auction, on the first of January, for the ensuing year.

"WHOSE OX IS GORED!"—The Asheville Pioneer doesn't like the Raleigh press mentioning the fact that the large number of convicts that are being daily placed in the Penitentiary are taken from the Republican ranks. The Pioneer does not deny the statement, but it objects to these tales being told out of school, whether from the fact that it hates parting company with its brother Radicals or regrets the rapid depletion of its party in the State, it does not say. Certain it is, the Pioneer man objects to the "constant allusion of the Raleigh press" to the Radical accessions to the State pen Don't be so sensitive, neighbor, over the results of Radical teachings.

SHERIFFS SETTLING.—The Sheriffs yesterday commenced in earnest putting in an appearance, and replenished to a considerable extent Treasurer Jenkins' money bag. M. D. Dogget, Tax Collector of Cleaveland county, paid over $4,404; J. D. Buchanan, Sheriff of Jackson, disgorged himself of $1,105; Sheriff Kenneth Haynes, of Columbus county, was eased of $3,656.15; Joseph Cobb, Sheriff of Edgecombe county, being overburdened, disgorged the snug little sum of $16,900.12, and J. A. Hall, Tax Collector of Rockingham, handed over $7,954.14. The Sheriff of Buncombe was on hand, but had not settled when we were in the Treasurer's office.

WESTERN RAILROAD—CONVICT LABOR.—We learn that there are now one hundred and forty-five convicts employed at work on the mountain section of the W. N. C. R. R. They are divided into three squads, one working immediately at Old Fort, another at Round Knob, half way up the ascent of the Blue Ridge, and a third at the tunnel at the top of the mountain at Swannanoa Gap. They are secured at night in two stockades, one at the tunnel and the other at Round Knob. The work is pushed vigorously.

On Monday night a gang of 45 convicts were sent up to work on the N. C. division of the Spartanburg Road.

MORE CONVICTS.—The Sheriff of Rockingham brought down on Tuesday morning six convicts sentenced by Judge Kerr to various terms of imprisonment. Five were negroes and one white. The latter, a man apparently about 55 years of age, with his gray beard, and respectable appearance, presented a pitiable contrast to the dirty negro to whom he was coupled. Sympathy ceased when it was learned that he had a negro wife, and that he was convicted of a deadly assault upon a woman. We learn this is the second time he has been sentenced to the Penitentiary.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we learn that Sheriff Hall had made a mistake in bringing Rose to the penitentiary, as the old man had only been sentenced to a short term in the county jail, and accordingly he was last night carried back to Rockingham.

POSTPONED.—The sale of valuable city property in Charlotte, advertised by F. H. Dewey, Trustee, to take place on the 22nd inst., the property of the late Mecklenburg Bank Association, has been postponed until the 24th of December.

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION—This Association of Virginia and North Carolina, which has been in session at Franklinton since Friday last, has been well attended, a very large crowd being present on Sunday. It will probably adjourn to-day.

PASTORAL CHANGE.—The Rev M. H. Vaughan, of Louisburg, has accepted the call from St. Stephens' Episcopal Church at Oxford, and will probably enter upon his duties in this latter connection about the first of December.

IKE YOUNG'S NEPOTISM.—The Richmond Enquirer thus pointedly puts the case:

"Grant's rebuke of Nepotism in his North Carolina Collector is very proper The President can attend to all that himself."

INFORMATION FOR THE LADIES.—The facts contained in the following communication will be found of interest to the ladies of the present age, showing as it does the summary punishment that was meted out in olden times to the "babbling" portion of the women creation. Says our correspondent:

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 20.

MR. EDITOR:—Perhaps it would be well for the ladies, whose rights and privileges in their own day of progressive ideas are so carefully protected, to be reminded that not very long ago when the "lords of creation" were less considerative than now, quite a different state of things existed, so that they may not forget to ever appreciate the goodness which seems to characterize the legislative magnates of the times. If they could only get a glimpse at the contents of a curious old book, which is said to still exist, entitled "A complete collection of the laws of Virginia at a Grand Assembly held at James City, 23d March, 1662," they would open their eyes a little wider perhaps than is usual. Among other acts it provides that "babbling women" (and how many don't babble) "who slander and scandalize their neighbors, for which their poor husbands are often involved in chargeable and vexatious suits and cast in great damages, shall be punished by ducking. If the slander is so enormous as to merit a fine of more than 500 lbs tobacco, then the guilty woman is to be ducked for each 500 lbs, in case her husband refuse to discharge the fine."

How repugnant it is to our way of thinking now to even talk about a woman being ducked merely for using her tongue! What barbarians those old Virginia fellows who made laws in 1662, must have been. Time is truly an inexhaustible mocker, bringing about wonderful changes, sometimes for the better, but sometimes for the worse, and you deponent would like to know your opinion as to the case of which he speaks.

CURE FOR LOVE OF LIQUOR.—At a festivia at a reformatory institution, recently, a gentleman said, of the cure of the use of intoxicating drinks:

"I overcame the appetite by a recipe given to me by old Dr. Hartfield, one of those good old physicians who do not have a percentage from a neighboring druggist. The prescription is simply an orange every morning a half hour before breakfast.—'Take that,' said the doctor, 'and you will neither want liquor nor medicine.' I have done so regularly, and find that liquor has become repulsive. The taste of the orange is in the saliva of my tongue, and it would be as well to mix water and oil as rum with my taste."

REV. MR. JURNEY.—Under the system of annual appointments in the M. E. Church, the Rev. Mr. Jurney's connection with the Person Street M. E. Church of this city ceased on Sunday last. This gentleman, both in his pastoral and private capacities, has given entire satisfaction to his congregation, and the Conference which convenes in Wilmington next week will greatly please his congregation by returning him another year.

A BEAUTY.—Says the Sentinel of yesterday evening: "We were shown yesterday an exquisite point-lace handkerchief, over stitch, which is the work of Mrs. Mary Lucas, of this city, who is 81 years of age. The work is rich and delicate, some of the figures of birds and flowers seeming like gossamer fabrice. Mrs. Lucas has never yet used spectacles or any other artificial aids to eye-sight."

HIGH PRICES FOR TOBACCO.—Says the Oxford Torchlight: Messrs. J. M. Currin & Co., proprietors of the Brick Warehouse, Henderson, N. C., on last Friday sold about 800 lbs. of tobacco for Mr. F. B. Hester at an average of $60 per cwt. Mr. Hester lives near Oxford, and we tender him our congratulations for obtaining such high prices when the weed was so low. Granville tobacco beats the world."

PATENTS.—From Louis Bagger & Co., Solicitors of Patents at Washington, D. C., we obtain the information of the following North Carolina patents being obtained during the present month: Eyeletting machines, by John I. Allered, Charlotte machines for packing tobacco in bags, J. B. Farrar, Cary, Wake county.

RELIGIOUS—The Rt Rev Thos. Atkinson, D. D. L. L. D., will officiate in Christ Church on the night of Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, 25th inst. The services will begin at a quarter past seven o'clock, and the Rite of Conformation will be administered. The public, as always, are cordially invited to attend.

POLICE MATTERS.—His Honor, Mayor Manley, had only two cases to consider yesterday. Wm. Morgan, who had been guilty of disorderly conduct was bled to the tune of $5 and costs. John Jeffreys, for being oblivious under peculiar circumstances, was sent on under a bond of $50.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting in the city yesterday Capt. C. M. Cooke and Mr. W. K. Davis, gentlemen who have so worthily represented the county of Franklin in the State Senate, and Mr. Jno. M. Moring, member of the House from Chatham.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale five young and well broke mules. They can be bought cheap by applying soon to them at No. 2 Martin street.

A large lot of oak and pine wood on hand and for sale by Joel D. Whitaker, No. 4, Martin street.

THE HOLMAN TROUPE.—This Company, which comes to us so highly recommended by the press of both the North and South, will make its first appearance at Tucker Hall tonight. The troupe is said to be the best the talented artistes, the Holman Sisters, have ever presented to the public. The Chicago Inter-Ocean, referring to their performances in that city, says:

"There was a large and fashionable audience at the Academy of Music last night to witness the representation of the Grand Duchess by the Holman Opera Troupe, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing the performance a thorough success.

First, for little Miss Sallie. We have seen the great Tostee a number of times as La Grande Duchess; we have also seen Mrs. Oates in the same role, and while it would be fulsome flattery to say that Miss Sallie Holman is in all respects equal to Tostee, we really think her decidedly superior to Mrs. Oates, and throughout the opera, but particularly in the courting scene with Fritz, she was very charming. In regard to Miss Sallie's singing, Mrs. Oates may probably have a slight advantage in the lower register, but in the upper register, Miss Holman far excels her rival, and the sweetness and flexibility of her voice is equalled by its power. She made her greatest hits in "Dites Lui," "Le Sabre de mon Pere," and the "Drinking Song," all of which were warmly encored. In fact, the pretty little lady bird was most enthusiastically received, and was called before the curtain at the end of the first and third acts.

In the Fritz of Mr. Brandisl, the singing was excellent. He has a clear, sweet tenor voice, and his rendition of the "Marseillaise" well deserved the warm applause with which it was greeted and encored.

Mr. Ryse is a good basso, and sung capitally.

Mr. A. D. Holman played Baron Puck exceedingly well.

Mr. Barton's Paul was an even and artistic performance, and his basso secondi voice was much admired."

The "Grand Duchess" will be played to-night. Reserved seats can be obtained at Carmer's drug store up to 6 o'clock p. m.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—To-morrow, the 25th, will be generally observed throughout the United States as a day of Thanksgiving, in obedience to the proclamation to this effect from President Grant. The people of different sections of the country will observe the day from different causes—many as only a holiday, while others will be thankful for the actual blessings attendant even upon the hard times that prevail from one end of the land to the other. Nevertheless, the day will be a common one in its observance, and the whole American people on this occasion meet at one threshold—that of the Giver of all good gifts, laying aside for the time being the bickerings of the political and business life.

The Day will be observed by the DAILY NEWS, and in consequence no paper will be issued from this office Friday morning.

A RAFFLE.—A splendid parlor mirror with damask curtains accompanying will be raffled off at Joseph's Saloon Saturday night. The mirror is one of the most handsome things of the kind we have ever seen in the city.

R. H. Weathers, opposite Sam Haywood's shop, Wilmington street, advertises to have the cheapest groceries, the best N. C. Corn and Rye whiskey, Southampton and Apple Brandy and sweet cider.

The Farmers' Council of Virginia and North Carolina.

The fourth annual session of the Farmers' Council of Virginia and North Carolina convened in Petersburg yesterday at 12 o'clock. The Index-Appeal of yesterday says of it:

"The officers of this Association are: Colonel Ed. Dromgoole, of Brunswick county, President; B. J. Rogers, Secretary; Major J. Arthur Johnston, Treasurer, and Dr. J. M. Pleasants, Clerk.

"The objects of the Council have been set forth to be the general promotion of the agricultural interests of the two States. As was well urged by a recent correspondent of this paper, the mission of the Council has not been superceded by the establishment of the Grange in Virginia; for the work of the Grange is private, while that of the Council is open, and in the nature of a mutual adjustment of questions that affect both producer and consumer.

"The sessions of the Council have been heretofore fruitful of valuable and interesting discussions; and they have been attended by some of the most prominent agriculturists of the State. The papers that have been read, and the addresses that have been made, before the Council at its previous annual sessions, have been justly regarded as useful contributions to agricultural science, and as well worthy of preservation and study.

"It is hoped that the session that begins to-day will be attended by no less numerous a body of delegates, and followed by results no less gratifying and substantial. The Secretary has received no information of changes in the personnel of any of the delegations, and it is supposed that the delegates remain the same this year as at the last session of the Council."

AN IMPREGNABLE POSITION.—Among American remedies, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters occupies what may not inaptly be termed an impregnable position. The foundations of its popularity are laid so deep in the public confidence, its excellence has been so frequently and conclusively demonstrated under the most trying circumstances, and it has been so long known to the public as a standard article, that neither the slurs occasionally cast upon proprietary medicines, nor the attempts of certain malcoholic nostrum venders to create a prejudice against a preparation with a solituous basis can affect it. The public recognize in it a safe, agreeable and comprehensive alterative and an invaluable general tonic, a speedy remedy for malarious disorders, and their most reliable preventive. Its reputation is founded, as it were, upon a rock. no 19—dawlw

FARMING INTERESTS.

ALFALFA, OR LUCERNE.—The Industrialist, published at the Kanzas Agricultural College, and edited by the President and Faculty, gives the following on this plant:

For stolidity, persistence and strict attention to business, commend us to the plant called alfalfa. Neither drought, chinch bugs nor grasshoppers seem to disturb its serenity. We have 1½ acres upon the college farm that was seeded April 8, 1875, to alfalfa. To day, June 7th, the ground is completely occupied with a dense, even growth of this valuable forage. From this mass we have selected plants that measured sixteen inches above the ground. The roots broke off at ten inches, and doubtless extended several inches beyond this point. If alfalfa keeps its good name during the coming season, many acres will be seeded in this vicinity in 1879. Who knows but what the introduction of alfalfa may mark the turning point in our agriculture, just as the introduction of clover and turnips one hundred and fifty years ago, marked a new era in the agriculture of Great Britian?

Lime vs. Ashes

Place a piece of iron or steel in damp ashes, and it will corrode with rust. Place the iron or steel in lime mortar, and it will remain bright and the rust will disappear. Sow small grain where a log heap or brush pile has been burned, or where a liberal dressing of ashes has been applied, and there will be a rank growth that will probably fall and never mature. Sow the grain where lime has been applied to the soil, and the grain will grow stout, stiff straw, and plump, hardy heads that mature well.

Ashes cause a rank growth of the herbaceous parts of plants, such as leaves, straw and grass; lime induces the growth of the woody part of plants, and the grain or fruit. Ashes stimulate heavy muck, and rich or virgin soils. They seem to act especially on vegetable mould and manure from the barnyard. Apply them to the most offensive pile of compost, and they will render it inodorous and worthless as a fertilizer, their effect being that of releasing the ammonia from the compost. Ashes used with a compost heap of decaying vegetable matter would be wasted—worse than wasted—as they render the compost inert as a fertilizer. Applied to an offensive sink, sewer or cesspool, they serve an excellent purpose as a disinfectant. They promote the growth of grass and forage especially, proving very valuable on low lands; will stimulate trees, etc., to a vigorous growth when the soil is strong. They exhaust strong soils and injure poor ones.

Lime improves poor soil, especially sandy ones by rendering them more compact and capable of retaining fertility when applied. As a promoter of health and vigor in apple trees it is one of the best applications that can be made to the soil. Under its influeuce trees mature well, the fruit is finer, and trees are freer from disease. Lime may be applied with benefit on most soils and many plants, but is of special value to the apple tree and strawberry plant, while ashes are valuable on heavy or rich soils for the grosser feeding of plants such as our native plums and currant bushes.—A. L. Hatch in Horticulturalist.

A Shocking and Fatal Accident—A Man Run Over and Killed—A Woman Knocked Down.

A special dispatch to the Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal, from Alexandria, under date of Monday, gives the following account of a horrible accident at that place:

A shocking and fatal accident occurred about half-past 7 o'clock last night on the heavy street track of the V. M. R. R. An engine of that road knocked down and backed over Mr. McCaleb Athey, who was standing upon the track. Mr. Athey and Miss Walker, of Upperville, and Mr. James Johnson and two Misses Lows of this city, were passing down Duke street on their way to the Baptist church, and when at the junction of Henry street their attention was attracted by the approach of the Baltimore and Potomac train which makes connection with the 8 o'clock Southern train of the Virginia Midland Railroad. The engine of the Baltimore and Potomac train approached the spot on the west track, and Mr. Athey stepped on the switch to the east of the track, along which an engine and tender of the Midland Road was backing. The ladies attempted to call Mr. Athey's attention to the approaching engine, but he was blinded by the glare of the head light on the Baltimore and Potomac engine and confused by the ringing of the bells, did not see or hear the engine which knocked him down. The tender and engine passed over him and broke and mangled his legs; the right one above and the left below the knee. Mr. Athey was immediately carried to the side of the track when he sat up until the arrival of Dr. W. W. Lewis, who directed the unfortunate man to be placed upon a litter and removed to his residence. The only remark made by Mr. Athey was "ah me," though his sufferings must have been most intense. This morning the injured limbs were both amputated above the knees, but Mr. Athey could not survive the shock and the loss of blood and died from his injuries at 3 o'clock. Miss Walker was also knocked down, but escaped unharmed.

DEATH OF SENATOR FERRY, OF CONNECTICUT.

The telegraph announces the death of this gentleman at Norwalk, Conn., on Sunday. He had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. Ferry was elected to the United States Senate as a Republican, but the policy of the party in reference to the South was odious to him, and his course as a Senator had been governed by his own conscience and judgment. Hence he was treated as a bolter, though not in full accord with the Democrats. He was a gentleman of talent, and his conservative fairness had won him many friends at the South. His vacancy will be filled by the election of a Democrat.

DEATH OF VICE-PRESIDENT WILSON.

This gentleman who was stricken with disease in the Capitol about a fortnight ago, succumbed to the attack on Monday morning. The prominent position Mr. Wilson had occupied as Vice-President and as a U. S. Senator has kept him conspicuously before the country. But his fame was solely sectional, and his life-long hostility to slavery placed him in the attitude of enmity to the South, which only of late was disarmed of its bitterness. His interest in the welfare of the South, manifested of late by his frequent inter-position to disarm the administration of its offensive designs, and the kindly feeling expressed in intercourse with Southern men, had elevated his opposition into the convictions of principle and commanded a certain degree of respect, and the South may lament the loss of one who at the last, was its sincere friend.

Mr. Wilson was a self-made man, rising from the humblest walks of life; another example of the triumph of individual worth, as well as of the liberality and flexibility of republican institutions.

WE would suggest to the Albemarle Times a reference to one of Æsop's fables in which he illustrates the difference between the liability of "your bull" and "my ox." It is all right with the Times when the whilom editor of the Sentinel paws and bellows and gores. It is all wrong when the NEWS stands on the defensive and does something of the same kind in return.

Nothing can be more disagreeable to us than these personal controversies. There is nothing we have been more anxious to avoid. The public can bear us witness to the exercise of a moderation under long continued unremitting assaults upon the NEWS—assaults which at this moment are converted by Mr. Turner into the uses of a regular campaign. Nothing but the blindest subserviency of man-worship could justify the perversion of the real facts which makes the NEWS the offensive party. For the good of the party, and for the respect of journalism we would have these controversies at an end. For their continuance we are not responsible so long as personalities are the staple of Josiah Turner's editorials, and so long as hostility to the NEWS is his leading idea. We protest against advice which justifies the really offending party, and holds up to condemnation the other which has reluctantly stood upon the defensive. The course of the Times will only aggravate an evil which that journal seeks to abate on its own terms.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean finds the causes of the panic in decrease of circulation in the South through loss of Confederate currency; in growth and spread of population, in the taking of currency to the Pacific slope, in government contraction, in ocean disasters and in a falling off of the tariff.

A NEW BONANZA.

The American Grocer, a New York commercial journal, calls the attention of the country to the infamous practices of speculators to uphold the price of coffee. Coffee is not simply a luxury. Use has made it a necessity. Congress has recognized this fact, and under the present tariff there is no duty upon it. The Grocer says it is whispered that a strong effort will be made at the coming session to put on a duty, the effect of which will be to enrich those who now hold immense stocks imported free of duty, which will be put on the market as if subject to duty, thus giving the speculator the advantage of the three cent duty. This is an infamous scheme, worthy of the morality of the present age of gigantic schemes and unscrupulous swindlers. Let Congress keep its hands clear. The people are not disposed to tolerate heavier burdens than they already bear, least of all for the benefit of monopolies.

Previous to 1872, Brazil, which is the main source of supply for the United States, was blessed with abundant crops, with a very uniform average and moderate prices. The failure of the crops in that and the succeeding years, run coffee up to a fabulous price for times of peace. And though, since those disastrous years, Brazil has resumed its usual fruitfulness, the temptation to high profits has been too strong to permit any concessions by importers. Cargoes are monopolized by them and dealt out to consumers on the standard of prices which the short crop of two seasons made compulsory.

Now it is time that this should stop, and dealers should take hold of it in such a way that these importers or speculators may be brought to their senses.

We copy from the Grocer a table to show, that while present prices rule as high as they did in 1873-'74, when there was a cause for high prices, there is now on hand—in first hands—six months consumption ahead, which if put on the market in the legitimate course of trade, would reduce prices to the consumer from 25 to 50 per cent., still leaving a handsome profit to the importer:

Visible Stock of Coffee in the United States at that date was	46,985	tons.
To this we add the average imports of the months of December, January, February and March for the last four years	45,974	"
Making on the 1st April next	92,959	"
From which we deduct the consumption of the above four months at the monthly average of the four previous years	38,496	"
Leaving a stock on 1st April of	54,463	"

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

On Tuesday the 23rd inst., the Convention to consider the question of recommending the Texas and Pacific rail road company, to the generosity of the Government, met at St. Louis. We presume there was a large representation from the South and Southwest as well as from the North and Northwest, and we have reason to think that the delegates are selected with special reference to unanimity. Therefore we look for a recommendation from the Convention in favor of the extremest of Tom Scott's measures.

It would under ordinary circumstances be suicidal on the part of the South to stand aloof from a scheme, which apparently is projected in its behalf, or to reject the aid of government to do what she is not herself able to accomplish. And the South is not so saturated with the principles of abstract disinterestedness as to spurn for principles so emphatically disregarded by others, that aid in money or credit, which has been so potent in building up the fortunes of the North. The poverty of the South demands relief, and her long treatment as an alien or a foster child, has taught her to meet with readiness any concession which restores to her, her share of the inheritance.

Therefore with the question of subsidy we shall have nothing to do except in its application. We are sure few Southern statesmen or Southern men would assume that superior virtue which would reject the aid of government to their section, when they see how lavishly it has been given to the North, and how efficient it has been. But Southern statesmen and Southern men ought manfully and unitedly oppose a subsidy, which under pretence of aiding the South, is applied still farther to strengthen the hands of the North, and in the same degree hopelessly weaken those of the South.

The contest for the Eastern terminus of the road is narrowed down, apparently, to Memphis and St. Louis. The New York Daily Bulletin says, if the overland route is to be built by the Texas and Atlantic & Pacific companies, it is obvious that its terminus must be at St. Louis, which makes another northern line. In effect, it makes what is falsely called the Southern Pacific, nothing more than another northern line in competition with the one now in operation. For it is clear that if the terminus of the road is at St Louis, or Cairo, or at any point north of Memphis, then it is a feeder to the northern routes of which Tom Scott is the controlling spirit, and the benefits of which the northern cities are the recipients.

What the St. Louis Convention will do is only recommendatory. But its action will be used to work its influence upon Congress, by a commercial body apparently representative. We call upon our Congressmen to beware of the snare, and to listen to no proposition which does not clearly and distinctly define Memphis or some point South of that city as the Eastern terminus of the Southern Pacific.

The Fight in Richmond Between Generals Johnson and Imboden.

The Richmond Enquirer of Sunday thus speaks of the difficulty Saturday night between Gens. Bradley T. Johnson and Imboden, mention of which has already been made in our columns:

The Senatorial contest and the criminations and recriminations incidental to taking the depositions of the parties more immediately interested culminated last night, as was feared, in a hostile meeting between prominent members of the two parties. Friday night, while making a deposition before a notary at the office of Mr. Neeson, to be used in contest of Knight against Johnson, as was reported in the Enquirer of yesterday morning, General John D. Imboden animadverted severely upon General Bradley T. Johnson in answer to a question on cross-examination by Mr. Royall, counsel for the latter. That this was calculated to arouse bad blood was fully appreciated by the public, and it was known among General Johnson's friends yesterday that he had been looking for General Imboden during the entire evening. It was not until last night, however, that the parties came together. General Imboden having been appointed by the Governor to attend the St. Louis Convention, and General Johnson learning that he was to take the northern train last night, repaired to the Byrd-street depot and found him in company with Mr. Franklin Stearns and Colonel William P. Burwell, co-delegates. General Imboden was sitting upon an express chest, and approaching him, General Johnson asked him if he was Gen. Imboden, and said he was looking for him, at the same time he drew a cowhide from his sleeve and struck him several times in rapid succession across the face and over the head. General Imboden resisted, and closing with his adversary struck him several times. With this General Johnson threw away the cowhide and drew his pistol, but Policeman Wallace Rowe was too quick for him and, springing between the parties, put both under arrest.

Gen. Johnson was placed in charge of Mr. Royall, who entered into a recognizance to deliver him at the station house, and as Gen. Imboden wished to catch the train, together with policeman Rowe and Mr. Franklin Stearns, sought Justice Crutchfield, and was bailed in the sum of $1,000 to answer on the 23 of December, with Mr. Stearns as bondsman. Gen. Johnson subsequently appeared before the same magistrate, and was held in a like sum, with Messrs. Royall and Stiles as sureties.

General Imboden and Mr. Stearns immediately took a hack and succeeded in catching the Northern bound train at the head of Grace street.

EXCITING NEWS FROM TEXAS.—The Galveston News has a special despatch from Brownsville, Texas, bringing intelligence of an exciting character from the Mexican border. A band of Mexican robbers, having made a raid into Texas and driven off a quantity of cattle, were pursued by a company of Texan rangers, numbering thirty-five, led by Captain L. H. McNeeley, formerly a gallant cavalry officer in the Confederate army, who has recently been commissioned by the Governor of Texas to protect the property of American citizens on the border.—Captain McNeeley and his force killed four of the thieves, but before they could reach the river on their return were surrounded in a gulch.—The Mexicans are gathering in force and demand the surrender of the American party, with the intention, no doubt, of taking all their lives. The United States troops cannot interfere, but it is probable that Texans will hasten to the rescue of their fellow citizens, and it is not easy to see where the trouble may end. Captain McNeeley will make a desperate struggle for life, and it is to be hoped that he and his followers may yet escape.

"THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS; I'LL NONE OF IT."—We do not in the least feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed, we are rather inclined to sympathize with him. Even nowadays most of the catharties offered to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets he would not have uttered those words of contempt. It is really encouraging, when one is ill, to find that a little, sugar coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mustard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other cathartics, are really nature's physic. They do not debilitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

DEATH OF SENATOR FERRY.—A South Norwalk (Ct.) dispatch, under date of Sunday, says that U. S. Senator Orris S. Ferry, whose health has been failing for some months past, died at his home in Norwalk that evening at 2 o'clock. His death creates a vacancy in the Republican ranks which will be filled by gubernatorial appointment by a Democrat until the meeting of the Legislature which will be elected in April next.

A shark has to turn over on his back when he bites, because his mouth is where his necktie ought to be. When Paul Boyton was attacked by a twenty foot shark he lay down on his back on the bottom of the sea and laughed at the fish which could not get at him.

The Late Vice-President Wilson—What He Thought of His Illness—A Painful Operation.

A Washington dispatch of last Friday thus speaks of Vice-President Wilson and what he thought of his illness at that time:

The Vice-President sat up in an arm-chair to-day, and seemed to be in better spirits than at any time since his illness. He conversed very freely, and alluded to his attack as quite unexpected. He has lost considerable flesh. His voice had a huskiness in it which seemed unnatural. He said that on his late journey from Massachusetts to Washington he called upon one of the most eminent physicians in New York. He was assured that his old trouble, paralysis, had entirely disappeared, but that there existed an unfavorable condition of the spine. The physician said that he could treat the disease, but that it would be severe. The Vice-President gave consent. After ether had been poured along the spine for many minutes, hot irons were applied in the same manner as to Senator Sumner after the Brooks assault in the Senate. The Vice-President says that he did not feel the application of the hot irons, but after the anæsthetic effects has passed he felt relief. The day of his attack he says he felt a most excruciating pain along the spine and especially at the base of the brain. He presumed it was the result of a cold, and thought that a warm bath would benefit him. It was then that he was overcome by the excessive suffering he had undergone. The Vice-President said that he could not have endured his suffering another hour. That immediately preceding the attack to which he had to succumb he felt his vital force rapidly giving way, and that the moment of the attack seemed his last. The Vice-President now thinks that this illness is the crisis of his disease, and that the heroic treatment to which he was subjected will prove so beneficial that he will now rally and be permanently restored. He expects to be able to leave for the North by Monday."

The Pittsburg Presbyterian says that a clergyman of Meadville, Tenn., has had conferred on him the honorary degree of D. D. by the University of Padue. One of the exercises required of him in order that he might merit the distinction was an address to the Faculty and a biography of himself in Latin. If such a test was made by all the Universities in the land of those who desire honors of this sort, how the harvest would diminish.

Persons and newspapers who part their names in the middle must be prepared to take a joke once in a while. The following from the Glenwood (Iowa) Opinion is not bad: "It is understood that when J. Sterling Morton becomes editor of the Chicago Times, during Storey's absence in Europe, the name of that paper will be C. Illinois Times."

A wild goose flew into Oregon, and its crop being opened revealed a new kind of grain. From the seed forty bushels have been raised, and the Oregon farmers are sitting on the fences with their elbows on their knees wondering what they shall call the new kind of whiskey they will make from it.

The recent rains caused the breaking of two reservoirs near Sonora, Toulumne county, Cal., carrying away a number of bridges and houses, drowning several children and stopping travel.

Cincinnati has the small-pox badly. Two hundred and sixty-four new cases have been reported to the health officer since November.

Yesterday's Mail

Brought three more certificates in favor of "Cannabis Indica," the great East India remedy for consumption, bronchitas and asthma:

———: Send me one dozen Ointment and one of Cannabis Indica. When Mr. J. W. Fisher brought his wife to me for examination, I found her in the incipent stage of Pulmonalous Consumption. Then it was I concluded to make a fair trial of Indian Hemp, and now there is a general demand for those remedies. The Ointment excels everything of its kind I ever saw or tried.
